

European Green Premises 2022

The economic, social and ecological benefits of biodiversity to business

14-15 September

Wiesbaden, Germany

and online

14.09.2022

Mainstreaming biodiversity-oriented premises in Europe

hybrid format

- 09:15 Welcome by Dr. Gerhard Mudrack, Member of Board of Directors, SOKA BAU
Opening remarks by Marion Hammerl, President of the Global Nature Fund
- 09:30 Opening by political representatives
BOP in the European perspective, Giulia Carboni, European Climate, Infrastructure and Environment Executive Agency
The importance and potential of BOP in Germany, Franziska Kaping, Federal Ministry for Economics and Climate Action
BOP: A case for businesses? Christoph Petri, Association of German Chambers of Commerce and Industry

10:30 Coffee Break

- 10:45 Activities and achievements in the EU LIFE Project BooGI-BOP by the project representatives from Austria, Germany, Slovakia and Spain
- 11:45 Strategies and tools to support BOP
Certification System for BOP by Sven Schulz, Lake Constance Foundation and Carla Schweizer, DGNB
Consulting of companies, Anke Heidemüller, NABU, project UnternehmensNatur Baden-Württemberg
Climate adaptation and BOP, Dr. Anna-Christine Sander, Hessian State Agency for Nature Conservation

12:45 Lunch

- 14:00 Companies for Biodiversity – best practice examples
- SOKA BAU, Germany, Alexander Lapp-Thoma
  - Ikea Industry, Slovakia, Annamarie Velic
  - Urban Castilla La Mancha, Spain, Susana Palacios
  - German Railway, Michael Hölzinger
  - Sonae, Portugal, Tiago Costa Oliveira

- 15:00 European-wide monitoring system
Agustín Rubio Sánchez, Profesor at Universidad Politécnica de Madrid

- 15:30 Boosting BOP into the mainstream:
Launch of National Focal points in Europe
- Grün statt Grau (Austria), Stefanie Kotrba
  - Alliance For Green Infrastructure (Spain), José Luis Rodríguez Gamo
  - DGNB (Germany), Carla Schweizer

- 16:00 Wrap up and conclusions of the first day

16:15 Walk around SOKA BAU biodiversity-oriented Premises

15.09.2022

A shared vision

in presence

- 08:30 Introduction The future of BOP – about learnings, achievements, and low hanging fruits
- 08:45 Climate Change and Biodiversity in new neighbourhoods from a landscape architect's perspective, Meike Van Stiphout
- 09:15 Impulse presentations: contributions to make BOPs successful.
Business approaches
- International market and capitals approach to biodiversity, Martin Lok, Capitals Coalition
  - Sustainability in a company, Philipp Höffken, German Cooperation (GIZ)
  - Biodiversity on Veolia Premises in Slovakia, Slavomira Vogelova
  - Engaging with nature - biodiversity at SEPIDES, Nuria Rodenas Martín
- 10:15 Coffee Break
- 10:30 Projects and initiatives
- How green are your premises? Dr. Martina Koch, Heinz Sielmann Stiftung
  - Projekt Faktor Grün, Meike Rohkemper; WILA GeWa/Netzwerk
  - Solar panels and biodiverse green roofs, Fiona Wolff, Bundesverband GebäudeGrün e.V.
  - Win-Win for nature and companies, Noreen Hiery, Umweltzentrum Hannover e.V.

- 11:30 Moderated exchange on the future of biodiversity-oriented premises in Europe
- Dr. Anna-Christine Sander, expert on climate-adapted commercial areas, Hessian State Agency for Nature Conservation, Germany
  - Nuria Ródenas, Architect and Project Manager, SePIDES, SEPI Group, Spain
  - Stefanie Kotrba, Project manager at the Competence Center and Innovation Laboratory for Building Greening in Vienna
  - Tobias Hornung, Biodiversity Manager, Ravensburg District, Germany

12:30 Conclusion & closing

12:45 Lunch

Moderation: Birgit Georgi www.birgitgeorgi.eu

Link for online participation:

<https://us06web.zoom.us/j/87182483093>

Venue address:

SOKA-BAU, Wettinerstr. 7
65189 Wiesbaden

Partners

Funded by the LIFE Programme of the European Union

LIFE BooGI-BOP
LIFE 17 GIE/DE/000466

